Full Movie Hindi.Q: Animate missing text in a textarea I want to animate the appearance of un-selected text in a textarea in order to illustrate that text is being temporarily hidden. I would just like to do this with HTML and CSS, if that is possible. Is that possible? I've tried to do it with a span, but it doesn't work, because the CSS3 text-transform property affects the rendering of the span and in that case, the span itself is invisible. A: No, it's not possible to do in HTML alone. You will need a little Javascript for this. Here's one way to do it (uses jQuery):
